New Residents Enthusiastic Over Campbell

Mr. and Mrs. George Wesley, new owners of a house on Central Ave. near Tubby Lane, are enthusiastic over Campbell and the Valley. Since Mr. Wesley, formerly Captain Wesley, has been in the Army for more than ten years, they have lived in a great many different places in the country, and, after careful comparison, consider California the most pleasant State in which to live.

Fifteen months of Wesley's Army career was spent in the European theater. He has recently received his discharge and he and his wife are now engaged in the ceramic business.

Chamber Has Sparsely Attended Meeting

A bare quorum was present at last week's Chamber of Commerce meeting and although a vote on the Chamber's attitude toward incorporation was scheduled for the April meeting, the matter was not brought forward.

Herbert Shadle read the minutes of the last Planning Commission concerning the denial of industrial rezoning along the railroad at Hamilton. George Arledge informed the group of the aims of the newly-formed Taxpayers' Association.

President Walter Silberbauer appointed Herbert Shadle a committee of one to discuss the re-lighting of the signs at either entrance to Campbell with the Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

A report of expenditures and revenues from the Old Settlers' Day dance revealed a profit of $17.33 for the Legion Post and the same amount for the Chamber.

Four new members have joined the group: Ray Gilpatrick, Ben R. Strong, Roy F. Ford Plumbing Co., and Western Gravel Co. In addition to them the complete roster of membership now includes:

Herb Shadle, Gene Hodges, Rex Fuller, George Arledge, Martin S. Walsh, Wilbur Mitchell, Walter Silberbauer, Rachel Spradling, Campbell Press, Horace Alford, Fish Auto Repair, Dan Clark, Joseph Agostinho, Lico's Market, Dave Rutherford, Byron Botts, Di Maria Shoe Store, Benson Cleaners, Taste Good Bakery, Campbell Pharmacy, Tony Rafanti, Campbell Water Co., Nelson Grain Co., Blue Bell Cafe, Golden Rule Store, J. M. Dahl, Wheeler Creamery, Yrene Beauty Service, Dr. W. R. Morgan, G. E. Jeffers, Stanley Henline, Henry W. Hoelling, Mathis Real Estate, Campbell Furniture Co., Pepper Tree Market, Cozy Cafe, Zola B. Hollinger, Mercer Electric Co., What Not Gift Shop, Blue Jay Cafe, Ira Grim, Stanord Oil Co., San Jose; Kepper Kettle Donut Shop, Fred Jones, James Dent, Guy Farley.

Clark's Drugs Has Expanded Quarters

Residents have been watching with interest the expansion of Clark's Drug Store into larger quarters. Dan Clark, owner, has taken over the space in the lower part of the Medical Building, formerly occupied by J. M. Dahl, realtor, and has installed new fixtures including fluorescent lighting, new display equipment and an enlarged prescription department.

As a fitting celebration for its 17th year in business here, the establishment now boasts the latest and most modern drug equipment and its prescription department ranks among the top ones in the State, according to Bill Means, pharmacist.

Most of the merchandise will be on display in order that customers may help themselves. Several new lines have been added and a candy and nut department installed.

Taxpayers Arrange Meeting For Tomorrow Evening

As one of the first activities of the newly-formed Campbell Taxpayers' Association, a public meeting has been arranged for the evening of Friday, April 26, at the grammar school auditorium to discuss the school bond question.

In conjunction with this meeting the grammar school will hold open house so that those interested may inspect the building.

Principal speaker for the gathering will be W. C. Henley, principal of the grammar school, with Jack Murdock as chairman. The audience will be invited to participate in the discussion and both sides of the question will be aired, according to George Arledge, secretary of the group.

On Monday evening, slightly more than 30 of the 110 who have indicated their interest and intent to join the group, met at the Library Hall to approve the purposes and rules of the organization and to elect officers. Ralph Shaeffle served as temporary chairman. Chosen as chairman for the period of one year was Ray Gilpatrick, Campbell contractor and builder. George Arledge, who has been acting as temporary secretary and treasurer, was officially and unanimously elected to that office.

It was decided to name a temporary executive board in order that time might be taken to choose a permanent board intended to represent all parts of the Campbell section and interests. Named to the temporary board were Martin Walsh, Walter Silberbauer, Zola Hollinger, David Rutherford and Everett Nelson.

George Arledge read a communication from the County Planning Commission saying its denial of the industrial zoning on Hamilton Ave. and the railroad tracks was final.

The group plans frequent open meetings for the discussion of community problems, one of which will be, in the near future, the question of re-zoning. According to Ralph Shaeffle, temporary chairman, it is hoped the meetings will be in the form of a "town hall" meeting with everyone free to take part in the discussion and that the group will thus act as a sounding board of public opinion.

Congratulating the group on its spirit and intentions, was William R. Biaggi, San Jose attorney and director of the Santa Clara County Taxpayers' Association for 15 years. He had the honor of becoming the first paid member of the Campbell association.

New Management For Filling Station and Garage

Bond Issue Proposed

As the result of a careful and comprehensive survey, and following the advice of the State Division of School House Planning, the Board of Trustees of the Campbell Elementary School District proposes that the electors of this district vote a bond issue of $325,000.00 for the purpose of building two new lower grade schools: one in the northern part of the district and one in the southern part.

The survey disclosed the fact that the school, built to accommodate 1000 pupils, expects 1500 children next September. There are enough pupils in the kindergarten grades through 6 to set up a 9-teacher school in the northern end of the district, and a 6 or 7-teacher school in the southern part of the district. According to the survey, the amount of transportation could be reduced as approximately 750 students are now being transported.

In addition to this, the birth rate has nearly tripled since 1935 and well over 1000 lots are now open in subdivisions not including the 275 homes now under construction.

Financing of the schools, the board feels, can be done by direct taxation with bonds, now selling for low interest rates, which would be retired in 20 years. This would mean a tax increase of approximately 35 cents per $100 of assessed valuation. They also feel this to be a fair method in that the new residents would share the school costs. At present there is no bonded indebtedness in the district.

Voting on the matter will be held May 24.

Fire Destroys Car and Garage

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed Steve Schiro's garage and car late Saturday evening. Schiro drove the car into the garage on Campbell Ave. around 9 p. m. that evening and shortly after midnight Mrs. Schiro's son, Charles Rizzuto, returning from the show with a friend, saw flames in the garage and awakened the household.

Volunteer firemen, unable to save either the car or garage, kept the sparks from spreading to the house.

The car, a 1931 Nash, was not insured.

Art Exhibit Now Open

The first exhibit of the San Jose Art League since 1941, opened at the San Jose Public Library Monday, with paintings, sculpture and ceramics by San Jose, and Santa Clara County artists. It will continue for two weeks, until May 4.

Contributions have been submitted by 14 members of the league so far, Fred Kessler, director, said. There are three new exhibitors this year—Mrs. Carol Kessler, wife of the director; Miss Oma Strain, San Jose State college art instructor, and Arthur Palmer, who is doing portraits in San Francisco for the Graves gallery.

The paintings include water colors, oils, and pastels. Two of the artists who have submitted contributions to the show "lean to the modern side," Kessler said. They are Wesley Goddard and Mrs. Kessler.

Moreland School Seeks Approval Of Bond Issue

The Board of Trustees of Moreland School will ask approval of a $68,000 bond issue to finance a new elementary school in a special school district election May 24, Mrs. George Payne, chairman of the board, announced recently.

The trustees have hired Birge Clark of Palo Alto as architect for the proposed new school, which would be built to accommodate approximately 200 students.

Present enrollment at Moreland School is 158, as compared with 88 at the same time last year, Mrs. Payne said.

Plans call for location of the proposed new school building on the grounds occupied by the present building at Payne Ave. and Saratoga Road.

The district has no bonded indebtedness, Mrs. Payne said.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Morgan, Sunnyside Ave., celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Monday, April 22. In their honor, their daughter, Mrs. Clarence Goodridge, entertained with a family dinner at her home. Present for the occasion were the couple's four children, Mrs. Floyd Bohnett of Santa Barbara, Mrs. Estelle Hoerner of Campbell, B. T. Morgan, Cupertino, and the hostess.

An informal open house was held during the day in order that friends might greet Mr. and Mrs. Morgan. In the evening Mrs. Goodrich served a light buffet supper.

Visiting Nurses Offer Services

In an effort to acquaint the public with services offered by the Visiting Nurses' Association, representatives of that organization are calling in rural areas to dispense information concerning their activities. The Visiting Nurses' Association is staffed by graduate registered nurses who bring hospital care to the home. The patient must be under the care of a physician.

This service is rendered to anyone acutely ill, or in need of treatment or dressings. In addition care is given expectant mothers and also new mothers and babies. The visiting nurse will assist the new mother in bathing the baby, planning a daily schedule and preparing formulas.

For those financially unable to pay, there is no charge for the service.

At the present time, the association is conducting a class for pregnant women in the Social Hall of the Adult Center which is located in back of the Horace Mann school, next to the Medical-Dental building in San Jose. The class meets every Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 4, and all women in the area are welcome.

In connection with their work, the visiting nurses do nursing for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

Anyone desiring further information may call at the office of the Visiting Nurses' Association, 520 Sainte Claire Building.

The Campbell Water Co. has this week entered into the second of its three phase improvement plan to increase the efficiency of its present water system. The first unit was the completion of the Diesel pumping plant located on the corner of 1st and Rincon Aves. This was for the purpose of increasing irrigation pumping facilities and to assure an adequate emergency supply of water in the event of a power failure.

The second unit is the laying of new water mains and increasing the capacity of some of the existing mains. New lines are being laid on Hamilton, Hedegard, Milton, Rosemary and Bland Avenues, and Poplar Street, in order to meet the rapid growth and needs of the town.

In a recent survey made by the Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, very high compliments were paid to the Campbell Water Co. for the general overall efficiency and upkeep of their present system and facilities. The new and improved mains are expected to be completed within the next few weeks.

The third of the three units will be the digging of a new well, and establishing of a new pumping plant on West Campbell Ave., just west of the high school. The reason for this is the rapid growth of the residential section in this area. The new pumping plant is expected to take care of the present development, plus any anticipated growth. The completion of this unit will make three separate pumping plants in Campbell, and will make it one of the most efficiently operated units of its size in the State.

Other major improvements will be made as the emergencies arise, according to Ralph H. Hyde, manager, who also predicted an increase of 10 to 15 per cent in house meters for the area.

Cancer Drive Going Slowly

Only half of Campbell's $200 quota in the cancer drive has been collected so far. Wilbur Mitchell, who is heading the drive, is placing receptacles for donations in stores and restaurants about town and asks the community's cooperation in fulfilling the quota.

The national organization will take 40% for research, which is a vital need if cancer is to be prevented and cured. The report presented in this field shows research in genetics, hormones, enzymes, diet and many other fields.

The service program includes hospitalization of needy people, support of clinics, hospital beds for victims who cannot be treated at home and endowed beds for operative cases, nursing care and free dressings.

The Information and Educational Bureau in the Burrell Bldg., San Jose, staffed by Mrs. Frances E. Ross, is supported by this drive. Motion pictures and speakers are supplied to any group who wish this information, along with literature, free cancer manuals for teachers are placed in all the high school science departments in the county, as well as information and supplying of a doctor whenever there is a request.

Ray Fishes Have Baby Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fish are the parents of a baby daughter born yesterday morning at the San Jose Hospital. The new arrival has been named Beverly Ann, and her two grandmothers are Mrs. F. W. Fish and Mrs. J. H. Parr. Mrs. Fish before her marriage was Miss Martha Parr, co-owner of The What Not.

There is a feeling of expectancy hanging over Campbell these days—there seem to be so many momentous decisions hanging fire and so many rumors running wild. Everyone has just heard "confidentially" that there is to be a new "this" or a new "that"; that "this" will be built; that "that" will be torn down.

A lot of these rumors are founded on fact for Campbell is undoubtedly on the threshold of great developments. The decision as to the future site of the postoffice is expected momentarily. Many new businesses are planned and many others planning expansions. We are all aware of the development in housing and the terrific increase in population.

It would be well for us as we stand poised to plunge into these new developments and activities to plan for the future wisely. By action now we can avoid costly mistakes in the future: We can take steps to plan our zoning and our setback lines; unfortunately this will have to be done, not by our selves, but through the County Planning Commission. However by unified action we can make ourselves heard by that Board. We can plan for future emergencies by attracting industries. We can realize our obligation to the future by securing for our children badly needed educational advantages and facilities.

All these things can be done only by unified and cooperative efforts. Let us not look back on the first post-war year as the one in which we did no planning.

Letters to the Editor

Campbell Schools

Dear Editor:

On May 24 the voters in the Campbell School District will decide whether or not the proposed $325,000 bond issue for the erection of two new school buildings passes. No doubt every tax payer has asked himself this question: Why two new grammar schools? A group of experts carefully surveyed the existing conditions and have recommended the construction of two new grammar schools because of the following reasons. Despite the fact that there have been four additions built on to the present grammar school, it is over-crowded. The capacity of the original building was 800. Today there are 1324 students enrolled and it is estimated that 1500 students will be attending next year. If the school is over-crowded this year, imagine the conditions next year! It is well known to everyone that the birth-rate is increasing and that the population around Campbell is rapidly growing. Every year this school district must expect an increase in enrollment. Education experts recommend for effective teaching and school administration that no grammar school should have more than 1000 students. To remedy this existing situation it is proposed that two lower grade schools be built. One school would be located south of Campbell and another north of Campbell. These schools would be strategically built in the center of the districts they serve. If the bond issue is passed it would mean that Campbell Grammar School would be no longer over-crowded and that the school district would have adequate facilities for the anticipated increase in enrollment.

The issue facing the voters on May 24 is whether immediate economy is more important than adequate education for the children of this district. It must frankly be admitted from a short range point of view, that money will be saved to the tax payer if the bond issue is defeated. But what of our boys and girls? What do the voters value most; useful citizens of tomorrow or a slightly lower tax rate? Even from the point of view of economy one can argue that it is cheaper in the long run to effectively train our future citizens than to pay the price of crime in the future. The Campbell Grammar School District needs two new schools if it is to effectively teach the children in this district. If you believe that the boys and girls of this district, the citizens of tomorrow, deserve the best training we can give them, then vote in favor of the bond issue on May 24, 1946.

ROBERT CARLSON.

Should We Vote the School Bonds?
Dear Editor:

This is a question of utmost importance affecting every resident of Campbell District. Even though you may not have children to be educated you should be interested, for every taxpayer will have to contribute his share of the expense.

There is very little doubt concerning the necessity to increase the accommodation in our crowded schools, but are the proposed plans satisfactory in every way, or could better ones be proposed?

This is for you—the people—to decide.

The Campbell Taxpayers' Association is giving you an opportunity to learn all the facts before voting for or against the bonds.

A public meeting has been arranged for Friday next, April 26 in the auditorium of Campbell Grammar school at 8 o'clock prompt, at which Mr. W. C. Henley, principal of the grammar school will try to explain the whole question. Mr. Jack Murdoch will occupy the chair.

The Campbell Taxpayers' Association is strictly non-partisan, but will endeavor to bring out the true facts so that you—the people —can form your own decisions. You will be invited to join in the discussion and ask any question pertaining to the matter under consideration, and it is hoped you will take advantage of this opportunity.

Other matters affecting the community are being investigated, and will be brought before you at a later date.

Join the Taxpayers' Association, for if we can represent the people we can make our united decisions known and bring prosperity and happiness to our community.

NO PLAN FOR ARMY

WASHINGTON.—After the last war, we let our best officers leave the Army, were content to make the Army a refuge for hundreds of misfits who couldn't adjust themselves in other walks of life, and settled down to complete complacency regarding the armed forces.

Usually history repeats itself. After this war, however, there is a little less complacency regarding the future—thanks to Russia. But there is almost as much do-nothingness regarding the internal organization of the Army.

President Truman has now demanded that we have a big peacetime conscript Army. But aside from Secretary of War Patterson's healthy board for probing caste, no steps have been taken to reorganize the Army's long outdated system of promotions, its methods of selecting officers, and, perhaps most important of all, its system of eliminating misfits.

A thorough reorganization of the Army might make it more enticing to good men and thereby eliminate conscription. Even Senator Chan Gurney of South Dakota, most ardent conscription enthusiast, will admit that a volunteer Army is more efficient than one composed of men who are forced to serve.

★ ★ ★ COULD USE HORSE MEAT

An important debate has been taking place among food experts inside the administration regarding the use of horse meat for feeding Europe.

Horse meat is a type of food which Americans know little about. Within Europe it is standard diet and certain countries, especially France and Belgium, have repeatedly informed the United States that they would like to buy more horse meat here. If two and a half billion pounds of horse meat could be sold to Europe—which is the amount available in the U. S. A.—it would take care of most of Europe's feeding problems and eliminate any need for U. S. A. rationing.

Such a program has been urged by UNRRA officials and also by some experts in the Army and Navy. However, the plan has run up against several snags, chiefly that of U. S. meat packers.

The big packers don't want the American public to get the idea that horse meat is processed in their plants. They fear that the suspicion would linger in the consumer's mind. However, Harry Reed, who does most of the meat procurement for UNRRA in the Department of Agriculture, leans toward the big meat packers and they never have wanted small state packers to get into the inter-state business.

HORSE MEAT FEEDS ZOOS

Another source of opposition is expected to come from the many horse lovers throughout the country who probably would claim that the United States was being denuded of horses.

Officials point out, however, that several hundred horses are slaughtered weekly all over the United States to feed the zoos of the nation. Furthermore, the United States today has a larger surplus of horses than ever before in history. Agriculture Department estimates are that three million surplus horses are now on the ranges and farms of the country. The grain which they alone consume would go a long way to —can form your own decisions.

You will be invited to join in the discussion and ask any question pertaining to the matter under consideration, and it is hoped you will take advantage of this opportunity.

Other matters affecting the community are being investigated, and will be brought before you at a later date.

Join the Taxpayers' Association, for if we can represent the people we can make our united decisions known and bring prosperity and happiness to our community.

No problem is too big for us to consider if you—the people—speak.

The notice of the bond election called by the Grammar School trustees for May 20th, appears in another column of this paper. Every voter in this district ought to be public-spirited and far-sighted enough to see the value of a modern school building, adequate to housing and proper educating of the fast increasing number of children here. Don't take out petty jealousies and private feelings on the children, who are suffering bodily injuries from present school conditions.

Last Monday Mrs. Mary Lock preferred charges against W. J. Feebeck for disturbing the peace. The case will come up in Judge Brown's court on Tuesday, May 9. The abuse which has been heaped upon that poor helpless widow woman has aroused the indignation of the entire community, and it is probable that other charges will follow.

Officials estimate that these three million surplus horses would supply a total of two and a half billion pounds of meat, also give fats for soap, together with hides to ease the scarcity of leather.

NOTE—While prices of almost everything tended upward during the war, the price of horses did not. Government buyers purchasing draft animals for UNRRA report that the country has thousands of four to six-year-old horses which have never been harnessed. Farmers haven't had time to break them in, would like to sell them if prices were right.

Father Raymond Reali officiated at the double-ring service, and Miss Josephine Barbano sang "Ave Maria". The bride, who wore an off-white dressmaker suit, with brown accessories and a corsage of orchids, was given in marriage by Joseph A. Teresi.

Miss Gloria Teresi, sister of the bridegroom, who was maid of honor, was attired in a lavender dressmaker suit with black accessories and a camellia corsage. Serving as best man was Allen Tracy with John Tracy and Nick Danna as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Winchester Road home of the benedict's father.

The new Mrs. Teresi was employed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, D. C., before her nuptials, and the bridegroom, after graduating from Campbell Union High school, was attending San Jose State college before entering the service.

The young couple are now at home in San Jose following a wedding trip along the Southern California coast.

Cooperation

Lloyd Skeels, Morgan Hill candidate for the office of sheriff of Santa Clara County, Saturday night told an audience of several hundred listeners the outstanding need of the Santa Clara County sheriff's office is for improved co-operation between that office and other law enforcement agencies and civic groups of the community.

Calling on his 16 years experience as chief of police in Morgan Hall, Skeels told the group, assembled at Germania Hall in San Jose, one of the biggest problems police departments and the district attorney's office have experienced in the past has been obtaining complete cooperation from the county's law enforcement officials.

Skeels promised his audience, that in the event he is elected, this will be one of the first problems he will tackle. In his opinion, he stated, it is only through mutuality of effort that the sheriff's office can operate with maximum efficiency.

The selected poem as it will appear in the anthology, follows:

THE CAPTIVE BIRD

A wisp of feathers held within my hand,
A tiny mind which could not understand.
A heart that beat and throbbed with tremulous fear.
A frightened eye which gazed up at the clear
Blue sky with hopeless agony.
My heart relented, and I set him free.

California Ram Sale At Galt, May 13-14

Plans were announced recently by the California Wool Growers Association for the 26th annual California ram sale — outstanding event of the year for the Far West's sheepmen.

The sale will be held in the county fair grounds at Galt, Sacramento County, on May 13 and 14, and will be preceded on May 12 by the Far Western International Sheep Dog Trial championships.

More than 1900 of the Far West's choicest rams and ewes will be offered for sale, with two of the West's leading auctioneers, Colonel Arthur W. Thompson of Lincoln, Nebraska, and Colonel Nelson Johnson of San Angelo, Texas, officiating. Professor Robert F. Miller, sheep specialist of the University of California at Davis, will assist in the ring.

Six States—California, Nevada, Oregon, Idaho, Utah and Wyoming—will be represented at the sale, and all of the better known breeds of sheep will be seen, including Hampshire, Suffolks, Suffolk Crossbreds, Southdowns, Rambouillets, Corriedales, Romeldales, Romneys and Columbias.

The program calls for the sale of blackface range rams on opening day and of whiteface range rams and ewes of all breeds on the second day. Blackface stud rams will be sold as the first event of the opening day and as the final event on the second day. Whiteface rams will go on sale the second day. Rams and ewes will be on display at the fair grounds on May 12.

The Sheep Dog Trials on Sunday, May 12, are expected to attract wide attention, not only on the part of sheep and range men, but of dog lovers, generally. The wartime shortage of manpower brought the work of the border collies to the fore and the trials will give these amazingly intelligent dogs an opportunity to show at their best.

Let's Can or Freeze Poultry
For Fall Use

Food economists point to a possible protein shortage this fall. Meat, poultry and eggs will probably be in short supply. Certainly there is an abundance of eggs; both poultry and meat are generally available. Because of the feed shortage many people are culling out old hens from their poultry flocks. Winifred Jecker of the Agricultural Extension Service, suggests that it would be a good idea to can or freeze some of this poultry so that there will be a supply in the fall. Directions for canning and freezing chicken may be secured free of charge at the Extension Service office, 201 Post Office Bldg., San Jose. It is absolutely necessary to use a pressure cooker in canning the chicken in order to avoid any danger of botulinus poisoning. Pressure cookers should be tested at the beginning of every canning season.

California. The circular was published in 1944 to provide information about California's varied agriculture—soils, irrigation, adaptability of various sections to a wide range of crops, types of farming, size of farm businesses, financing, and other services for the newcomer to agriculture in this state. It was prepared by Arthur Shultis, specialist in farm management with the Agricultural Extension Service.

Returning veterans will gain much from this publication to save them from costly mistakes. It is available at no cost through the Agricultural Extension Service, 201 Post Office Bldg., San Jose, or Columbia 3866.

On Guard For Codling Moth

The time is near at hand for the first application of spray for codling moth in pears and apples.

Codling moth is the insect that causes worms in apples and pears. It is a small moth, gray with copper tips on the wings. It lays eggs on the fruit and foliage, and the worms develop from the eggs and bore through the fruit.

Four successive sprays are usually applied for codling moth. The first is applied in the calyx stage or when one-half of the petals have fallen. Four pounds of lead arsenate to 100 gallons of spray, with or without spreader, is used for the calyx spray. Ten days later the same spray is repeated.

The first cover spray is applied two weeks later, the same proportion of lead arsenate with spreader added. A second cover spray is added about three weeks later, based on the bait pan count of moths in flight. Additional spray applications may be necessary in badly infested areas.

Growers wishing further information on control of codling moth may contact the Agricultural Extension Service, 201 Post Office Bldg., San Jose. Publications of the University of California dealing with pest control in deciduous orchards are available to those who request them from the Extension Service. A recent mimeograph on "Factors in the Use of DDT on Pears" by Arthur D. Borden, associate entomologist of the University of California is available at the Extension Service office and contains material on the use of DDT for the control of codling moth and other insects in orchards. It has been found that DDT is effective in the control of the codling moth and other insects, but is alone is not sufficient to control all of the orchard pests.

California Medical Association
Starts New Campaign

Inauguration of a statewide campaign offering medical-economic security to the people of California through voluntary health insurance was announced recently by the California Medical Association, through its president, Dr. Philip K. Gilman.

The campaign will be financed and spearheaded by the medical profession with the support of the insurance industry and hundreds of civic and fraternal organizations. It will radiate into every section of the State through a series of "Voluntary Health Insurance Weeks" in each of the 58 California counties this year and next.

Opening guns in the campaign will be fired this week in Solano and Orange counties with the start of week-long voluntary health insurance programs. Next week the drive swings to Santa Cruz County. City and county officials, civic leaders, county medical societies, insurance and fraternal leaders and representatives of California Physicians' Service, a CMA affiliate, will participate.

Twenty counties will conduct separate, localized campaigns this year, with similar drives scheduled for the remaining 38 counties in 1947.

"This will be a crusade to take the economic shock out of illness or injury," Dr. Gilman explained. "The medical profession is contributing heavily, both of its money and its energy, to encourage every California citizen to enroll in a sound voluntary health insurance plan."

Every week a name will be drawn from our list of new subscribers and printed in the classified ad column. The person whose name appears there may receive two free passes to the Campbell Theater by calling at the Press Office. Look and see if your name is there!

Local Candidates And What They Say

What is a woman's most attractive age? The age she is? What is a judge's age of greatest efficiency? The age he is! And thereby hangs a tale.

The average woman who comes to my justice court with a minor traffic citation is frightened, perhaps on the verge of tears. Shock of arrest and dread of a scolding judge have strained her nerves. If I were young and efficient mechanically she might leave court hating the law, all arresting officers and all judges, and itching to break the law again and get away with it.

But I am elderly and efficient philosophically. The average woman pays her fine and leaves my court in smiles, voluntarily promising never to drive carelessly again, and thinking better of all things connected with law enforcement.

As for me, no matter what her age I have found her charming. But deeply to my regret, I never see her in my court again. She has promised to cooperate with the law and has meant it.

JOHN D. BLAINE,
Campbell Township Justice.

My qualifications for the office of constable are: in the first place I feel personally that Campbell needs protection for the children going to school and coming out of school. There is no protection whatever at the present time. My opponents are occupied with different occupations at the present time and they can't afford to devote their entire time. I am unoccupied; that line of work is just what I love.

I think I am the best qualified man for the job.

When I hear my opponents tell what they did during the war, I want to emphasize emphatically that I gave 18 years of my early life for the benefit of my country, helping immigrants across the plains. We spent as much as 46 hours without a bite to eat or a drop of water to drink.

I want to thank the many people who are giving me encourage-

Henley Speaks To Kiwanis Club

At the Campbell Kiwanis meeting April 23, Bill Henley, principal of Campbell Union Grammar school, gave a talk on the necessity for new school buildings, showing where the present plant was accommodating 1300 pupils when only intended for 1000. He stated that they anticipated an attendance of at least 1500 in 1947 and 1700 the following year. Mr. Henley showed there would be an advantage and saving in transportation by building two new schools, one in the northern section and one in the southern section, each to accommodate kindergarten and the first six grades, sending the 7th and 8th grades to the Campbell school to prepare for entry into high school.

Paul Becker, as chairman, did a good job in collecting "grudge" fines.

Visitors were Bennie Moritz and Paul Crider of Los Gatos club; Harrison Devereaux of the Berkeley club. The high school student guest was Dick Cotta, a senior. Other guests were Bill Maderis, Jim Avilla, Lloyd Van Oterendorp, A. O. Dahl and Chief Mate George Galigan of the Hillsdale Victory.

Next week Director Dick Gordon will present his grammar school orchestra and Tony Ferro will be chairman.

Jack Murdock read a portion of a letter from the Merrills in Los Angeles which stated that Dr. Merrill has now located at Birmingham Hospital in Van Nuys.

It's a Boy!

Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus L. Ratcliff are the parents of a boy, born April 13 at the San Jose Hospital. He has been named Charles Lewis.

JACK ANDERSON OR THE C.I.O. POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE

Next June, you will vote for the Congressman who will represent you in Washington.

The ballot will read—Jack Anderson or C. H. McDonald. Actually, it should read Jack Anderson or the C. I. O. Political Action Committee.

For many months, Jack Anderson has stood in the way of the C. I. O. Political Action Committee's lust for power. This committee has announced in no uncertain terms that this time "we'll get Anderson."

The Political Action Committee is spending money freely! It is using the same propaganda tactics developed in Europe. But if you'll look beyond the smoke, you'll realize there is but one basic decision—Do you want free representation in Washington or C. I. O. domination?

New vacuum tube equipment will speed long distance calls

Long distance expansion program in full swing

At dozens of places up and down the Pacific Coast we're going ahead with new vacuum tube equipment which boosts the number of telephone calls wires can carry.

This is just part of our unprecedented long distance expansion program now under way.

For the phenomenal development in this part of the country has resulted in a tremendously increased number of toll and long distance calls. (In 1945, for example, we handled nearly a million a day.) But we're working full speed ahead to install the additional facilities we need to provide a better and faster long distance service than ever before.

Quiz Program Given At Odd Fellows Home

Mrs. Pomeroy's class at Moreland school gave a program at the Odd Fellows Home on April 12. Dudley Herschbach represented Dr. I. Q., with Bobby Sunzeri as introducer and the score keeper was Edith Pankoski. The contestants were: Sharon Peterson, Ora Stephens, Betty O'Hara, Gladys and Rosie Lawson, and Marie Battaglia of the girls, and the boys were: Neil Phillips, Michele Chiechi, Richard Sisemore, Clarence Hill, De Soto Chagolla, and John Caravella.

—Edith Pankoski.

Moreland Victory

On April 11 Moreland "Tigers" had a baseball game with Saratoga. It was a very nice day. Moreland won, the score was 10 to 3. Next week we are going to play a game with Almaden at our home diamond.

Troop 36, Dad and Son Hike

Moreland Scouts took their Dads on an all-day Dad and Son hike to Big Basin on April 14. Each Scout took care of his own Dad and cooked for him. Our Scoutmaster and committeemen had a Dads council and paved the way for our summer trip to Yosemite, while the Scouts cooked dinner. We hiked over the Redwood trails and had an inter-patrol tracking contest, taking our Dads with us. We also hiked to Maddock's cabin and did a little exploring. Maddock's cabin was the first cabin in Big Basin and was made from redwood trees. All the lumber was made from hand-split wood. We fed the deer and noticed that their horns are in velvet and only partly grown, and we could hardly tell a forked horn from a spike. We took pictures of each patrol and its Dads, for our patrol album. Too bad we couldn't stay overnight. We sure have shown our Dads how to camp.

—Dudley Herschbach.

Troop 36 Receives New Tents from Army

Troop 36 got six rubberized tents (nylon) from the Army (slightly used). During Easter vacation the Eagle patrol camped out two nights using the new tents. The first night we built a great big council fire and sat around it and sang and told stories. Then we learned some of the different constellations of stars and blew taps. Our boys didn't have a bugle and got us up at 5:00 a. m. One of the Scouts walked in his sleep and almost fell in the creek, but was saved by his bedmate, Glen Stephens. The second morning we practiced making fire by flint and steel and studied the 1946 Hike-o-ree program.

—Dudley Herschbach.

The PTA is giving a whist party Friday evening, April 26, at 8:00 o'clock in the school auditorium. There will be many fine prizes and everyone is invited. Come and bring your friends.

Educator Backs McDonald

A new note in the modern trend toward better government was sounded today when Dr. Thomas S. Barclay, Palo Alto, was today elected president of an Educators and Scientists League to elect Charles H. McDonald, Democrat, to Congress.

Explaining the interest educators and scientists have in sending new men to Congress, Dr. Barclay said, "our errors of the past will not be repeated if the people remember they always get the government they deserve. We must strive to seek out new men who are able and ready to keep step with the future. Free men will stay free under the scientific advancement of today only when their statesmen are of a different moral fiber and political ability than those who are still resolutely facing the past."

Other educators and scientists named officers of the league are: Dr. T. H. Boggs, vice-president; Dr. Theodore Kreps, chairman speakers bureau; Dr. Victor Hall, treasurer; Dr. F. W. Weymouth, secretary, and Dr. Percy Baumberger, research chairman, all of Palo Alto.

Building Material Lack May Hold Up Fair

Whether or not the 1946 California State Fair can be held without the use of building materials urgently needed for veterans' home construction will be decided by the directors at a special meeting in Sacramento May 3.

The recent order freezing building materials and man-power for veterans' housing precipitated the possibility that the fair might not be held.

Directors of the exposition which was dormant since 1942 when the army took over the fairgrounds, were told by Manager F. M. Sandusky that the fair has filed with the Civilian Production Administration requests for permits to make several major improvements which can be completed without the purchase of critical materials, but that it would be about two weeks before a decision is expected.

Governor Warren met informally with the directors and gave his views on a fair for 1946. He said the fair should not be considered if use of critical materials would conflict with the veterans' housing program, but agreed with the directors that the public wants a fair after five fairless years due to the war.

The Romance Of Food

By LARRY BLAKE

A turkey is typically an American bird. At least most of us like to think so. But, if it is, why do the French call it a dinde?

Dinde — pronounced dand — is French for de Inde, which means "from India". And the reason the French called it that is because they thought it came from India, not knowing that it was native to America.

To go back even further, the old Roman historian Pliny wrote extensively about a bird the Romans raised that sounds more like a turkey than anything else. According to Pliny as well as later historians, the Romans had many of them about the beginning of the Christian era, but, as the Empire declined they became progressively rare until they apparently disappeared altogether from Europe, not making their reappearance until presumably imported to France from India about the year 1432, which would certainly antedate their discovery in the New World.

Among the ancient Greeks there was a belief that Meleager, king of Macedonia, had introduced them to Europe from Africa and that's about as far back as you can go.

Yet those who may feel that the very thought that the turkey isn't strictly an American bird have some mighty distinguished company. Benjamin Franklin so earnestly believed the turkey to be 100 per cent American, he raised strenuous objections when the eagle, instead of the turkey was selected as our national bird.

A good way to serve turkey in anything but the traditional Thanksgiving style is like this: Split a young turkey down the back; wash well and dry with cloth. Season to taste with salt and pepper; smear well with oil and broil until done. It's strictly super-delicious.

Veterans' News

The Veterans Administration is the government agency responsible for administering all federal laws granting assistance to ex-servicemen and women and their dependents.

These benefits include medical, hospital and domiciliary care; compensation, pension, and retirement pay; vocational rehabilitation; education and training; guarantee of loans; readjustment allowances; insurance and others to which veterans or their dependents may be entitled by law.

A discharge other than dishonorable is a general eligibility requirement for any benefit. To qualify under the Servicemen's Readjustment Act or "GI Bill of Rights," the veteran must have been in active service for at least 90 days, part of which was after Sept. 16, 1940. However, he is eligible if he was discharged in less than that time by reason of a disability incurred in service.

An ex-serviceman or woman may receive medical treatment or hospitalization for any ailment resulting from his service by applying at a Veterans Administration hospital or out-patient office. If he is unable to pay for private care, the VA will also treat him for a non-service connected disorder.

Veterans who have a service connected disability of ten per cent or more are eligible ordinarily for pensions. An unmarried widow of a veteran usually is entitled to some pension by applying to the Veterans Administration.

If an ex-GI who meets the general eligibility requirement wants to add to his education he is entitled to at least a year of schooling or apprentice training under the GI Bill. He will be granted additional time equal to the period he spent in the service, up to a maximum of four years. For instance, a man who was the Army for two and a half years is eligible for three and a half years of school.

While in training the government will pay him a living allowance of $65 a month if single, $90 if married, and stand the cost of tuition, fees and books up to $500 per year. However, he may take a short, more expensive course if he desires.

The VA under the GI Bill will guarantee loans to veterans up to $4000 on real estate and $2000 on business, not to exceed 50 per cent of the total amount of the loan.

Unemployed veterans are eligible for the readjustment allowance up to $20 a week. They may receive these payments for as long as 52 weeks, depending upon length of service.

By reason of service in the armed forces, the veteran also may retain his low cost term insurance or convert to a permanent policy. Both types are backed by the government and administered by the VA.

Henry Hoelling Takes Bride

At a charming afternoon ceremony at St. Lucy's church with Father Ryan officiating, Miss Josephine Oddo became the bride of Henry Hoelling, recent newcomer to Campbell.

The new Mrs. Hoelling chose for her wedding the traditional white gown with a satin bodice and full net skirt. Her fingertip veil was fastened with fresh orange blossom and she carried a bouquet of gardenia and bouvardia.

Matron of honor and best man for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Withrow of Oakdale. A small gathering for relatives and friends was held at the church after the rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Oddo of Newark, N. J., and arrived here a short time ago. The benedict has been making his home with his grandmother, Mrs. Marie Pesch. After a short wedding trip the young couple will be at home in their new house opposite the Campbell Union High school.

Engagement Announced

News of the betrothal of Miss Gloria Suess to Edwin Loudon was revealed to friends at an Easter breakfast Sunday at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Suess, Rosemary Lane. The young couple's names were in miniature silver and white hat boxes, each with a tiny hat inside, at each guest's place. Centering the table, between pale blue candles, were Belle of Portugal roses arranged to spill from a large silver hatbox.

Miss Suess is doing graduate work at Stanford University and the future bridegroom is enrolled at San Jose State College. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Present for the breakfast were: The Misses Judy Rucker, Elizabeth Peterson, Jackie Jamieson, Ann Ruscitno, Margery Howell, Barbara Wright, all of San Jose; and the Misses Mary Lou Blair, Carol Lantz and Elaine Jeffers, of Campbell; and the bride-elect's sister, Miss Beverly Suess.

Campbell Union High PTA Members Urged to Vote

At the last regular meeting of the Campbell Union High PTA it was moved and carried that the unit go on record as being in favor of the bond elections for the elementary schools in the Campbell area. Friday is election day and all members are hereby reminded of that motion. No one should be more thoroughly aware of the school problems and needs than an active PTA member. Members are urged to go to the polls and ask their neighbors to do likewise.

Students Home For Easter Vacation

A large number of Campbell young people attending school away from home were guests at their parent's homes during Easter vacation. Mrs. Irma Bowdoin welcomed home her daughter, Miss Anne Bowdoin, who is attending Everett Junior High school in San Francisco.

Dick Jones, son of Mrs. Hugh Jones, was home from college in Santa Barbara for the holidays.

Campbell Girl Scouts

Troop 25 held their regular meeting April 18, at the home of the scout leader, Mrs. J. L. Parker.

Business discussed was the friendship bags, friendship and hospital jars, badges, dues, scout birthday party, uniforms, rules, and a troop library.

On Easter Sunday our troop gave to our T. B. ward at the County Hospital one box of Girl Scout cookies, two dozen Easter eggs, and an Easter card to all the children in the ward. The children range from 17 months to 17 years. We have taken this ward as a Girl Scout project for one year.

We advanced a little farther in our Red Cross work under Mrs. Flindt's leadership. We discussed last meeting's Red Cross chapter and learned bandaging.

Our meeting was then closed with the Girl Scout's promise and taps.

—Peggy Hall, P. C.

Attend Convention In San Francisco

Mrs. Leslie Fairchild and Jeanne Gartner of the Campbell Pharmacy attended an Elmo convention at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco yesterday. Demonstrations on the use of Elmo cosmetics were presented and other information about the products given to dealers. Luncheon was served at the St. Francis to all attending.

Scout News

Troop 31 of the Boy Scouts, accompanied by Bill Weeks, enjoyed a two-day camping trip in Big Basin last Friday and Saturday. There were 18 boys on the excursion. Through the courtesy of The Press they wish to thank Nelson Brothers Trucking Company for the truck loaned to them and also C. C. Smith for the tankful of gas he donated.

Ten boys registered Tuesday evening at Scout Hall as members of the newly-formed Sea Scouts, Ship No. 26. Next Tuesday evening, April 30, they will meet again.

"Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest nay of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin" (Hebrews 3:12, 13).
